

THE WESTMORELAND MUSEUM of AMERICAN ART

ANNUAL REPORT 2015-2016

This was the year we had been working towards for so long—the year we opened our new, visually dynamic, LEED Silver certified building to the public.

But before we could do that, we needed to move ourselves and our collection back into the museum building from our temporary quarters, dubbed @rt30, that had hosted us so well for two years.

So we went dark for a few months at late summer 2015 during which time the art team first moved the art into the fine arts storage areas of the new building and then started to hang it in the new galleries. The rest of the teams remained at @rt30 to go through files, pack everything from books to the Museum Shop inventory and, several weeks later, joined the art team in the “mothership.” We had come full circle.

By late September we were beginning to learn our way around a building we had become very familiar with on paper but was something else in person—something at once wonderful, terrifying, gratifying, unfamiliar and liberating.

On the very rainy evening of October 24 we welcomed nearly 800 people into the building (with parts still unsettled) for a celebration fittingly called The Sky's the Limit! The next day, our first full day open to the public and designated a Free Family Day, we welcomed nearly 1,300 visitors! We were so excited to see long lines of adults, children, students and families at the entrance doors.

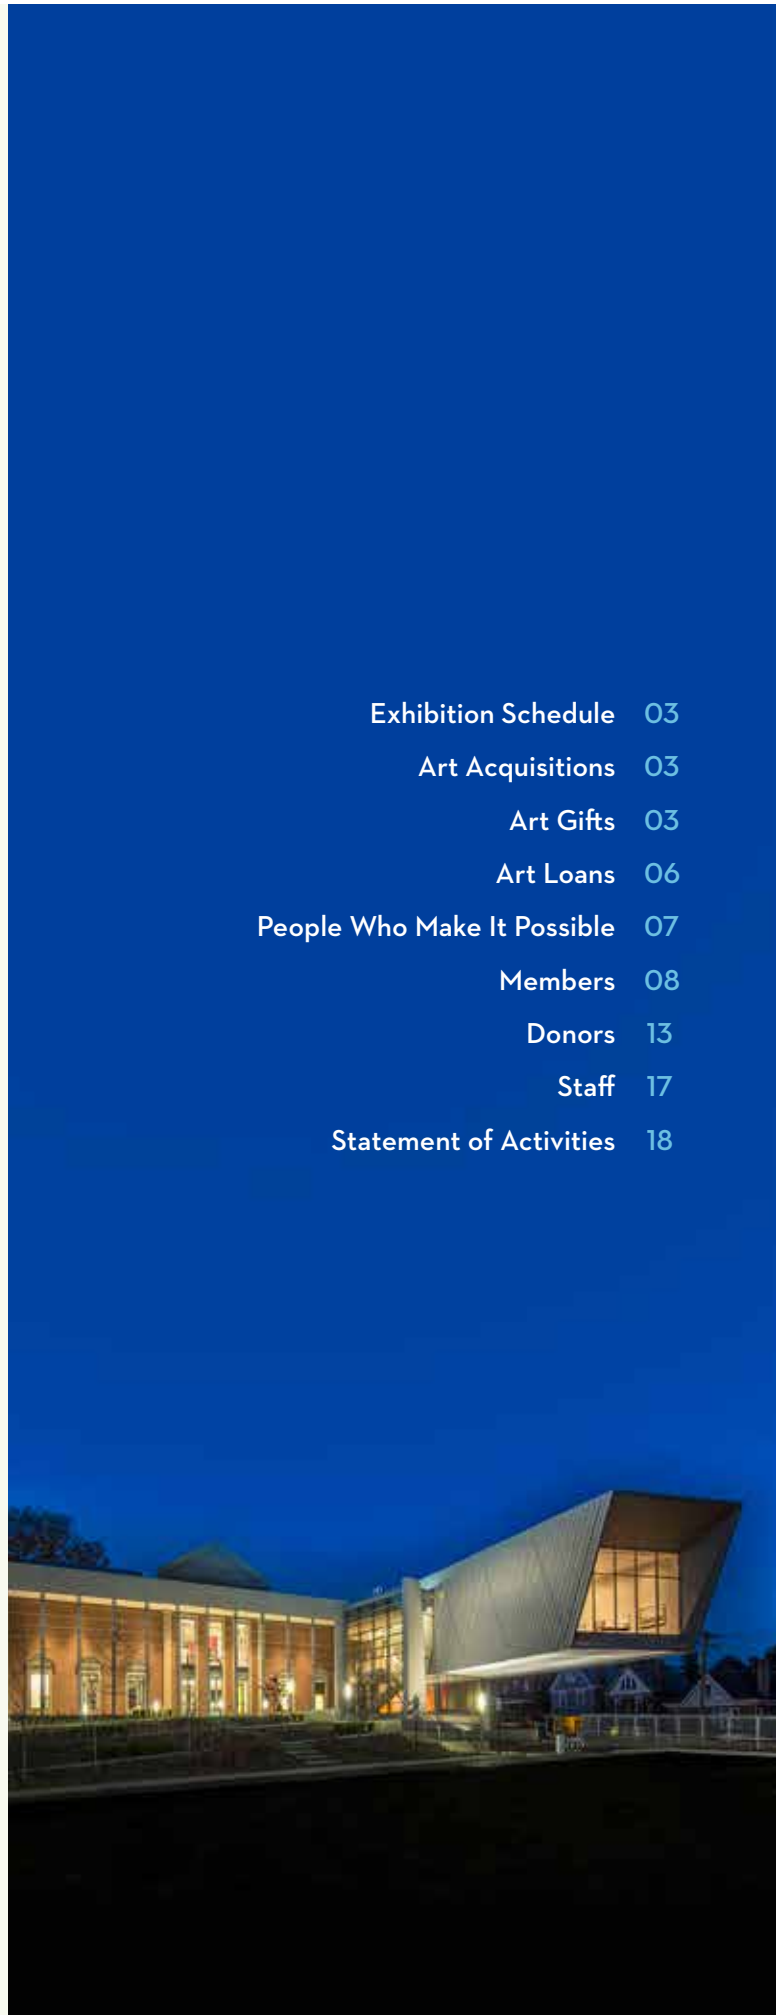

We were pleased to open with an exhibition of the first 72 works selected from the estate of Richard M. Scaife, an installation of gifts and promised gifts from Peter and Diana Jannetta and works by American sculptors given by Dr. Michael Nieland. Our new galleries were amazing with a panoply of American art, for the first time inclusive of modern and contemporary art!

The incredible generosity of our donors and community are reflected in the following pages. We gratefully acknowledge their partnership and support in making all this happen.

Your Country. Your Art. Your Museum.

Through the generous support of our community, The Westmoreland is able to bring enriching art experiences into the lives of more people—locally, nationally and even internationally. This includes thousands of school age children who are introduced to the art and history of their own region and nation each year.

Take the lead to ensure that your Museum will continue to grow and thrive, allowing current and future generations to experience American art.

Make a difference. Give today!

Ways to Give.
